

Technical Representative (Industrial Floor Coatings)

National Polymers, a progressive manufacturer of industrial floor and roof coatings, has openings for full time Technical Representatives in several different locations.

The ideal candidate will possess knowledge in industrial floor coating market, with past experience applying floor coatings.

Job Duties May Include:

- Provide technical assistance to customer regarding product application
- Provide timely resolution to customer concerns
- Trouble shoot coating and application problems
- Provide support to existing sales staff as needed
- Offer product and systems recommendations to customers
- Offer assistance with bid submittals and specifications
- Communicate with customers regarding product availability
- Communicate customer needs with other departments within company
- Perform product application training and demonstrations to customers
- Other duties as required

Qualifications:

- Prior floor coatings field or service experience (installer/specifier/technical representative or other position in the industrial coatings market)
- Strong problem solving and analytical skills
- Knowledge of industrial coating applications
- Good oral and written communication skills
- Computer skills (MS Office, Excel)
- Ability to work as part of a team to satisfy customer's needs

National Polymers, Inc offers a competitive compensation and excellent benefits that include:

- Health Insurance (medical, dental, and vision)
- Paid vacations/holidays
- 401(k)
- Life and Disability Insurance

To apply email or mail resumes to:

National Polymers, Inc

9 Guttman Avenue

Charleroi, PA 15022

erica.corrick@nationalpolymers.com